Claim Rejections under 35 U.S.C. 102(b)

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipate by JP 07087845; 4/4/95. JP '845 discloses an example comprising eugenol and benzyl alcohol. See abstract. The reference does not disclose that the example is used as a pesticide. However, the intended use stated in a claim to a composition has no patentable significance. In re Maeder et al 143 USPQ 248.

3. Claims 1,3,4,6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by JP 71034993; 8/14/68. JP '993 discloses a herbicidal (pesticide) composition comprising 1% iso-eugenol which is used in a method of controlling weed growth in rice. See abstract.

Claim Objection

Claim 7 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims. The prior art does not suggest or teach the instant pesticidal composition being used in a method comprising applying the composition to stored products to control beetles.
